Introduction

Welcome! We are so glad that you decided to join us on this journey.

Our quilt along is not just about making a quilt (though don't you just love making a quilt with a big group of quilt makers?), it's also an exploration. This quilt is about YOU. It's a celebration of your imperfections, YOUR journey on learning and accepting the beauty of just being average.

We compare ourselves to others and make ourselves miserable. We are self critical. Let's stop all that right now! YOU are incredible just as you are.

I've been chatting with you here and there, getting to know you. Some of you are funny and quick witted, some of you have style I can't get over, some of you put together amazing color palettes, some of you are kind and sweet and make my day with your supportive words, some of you are intelligent and detail oriented. We are all very different and we are all just fine the way we are. We don't have to be everything.

YOU ARE ENOUGH.

However your quilt ends up looking at the end of this journey together, let it be YOU. Use your favorite or hoarded fabrics. Show off YOUR style, whatever that may be.

♥
Melanie

About the Quilt

We will be making a modern sampler quilt. Sampler quilts are perfect for skill building and trying small doses of different techniques.

Finished Quilt Size: 60x70"
11 different block patterns will be included

About the Quilt Along

- Starts September 28 and ends February 1.
- A new post and pattern releases every other Friday on the Havel's Sewing blog.
- Every post will include a video tutorial to help you with each block for those who need guidance.
- This quilt along is sponsored by Havel's Sewing and hosted by Melanie Traylor (that's me!).
- Havel's will be giving away prizes every other week. To win you must be following @Havel's_Sewing on Instagram. Winners will be chosen from participants who post progress shots using the #IamEnoughQuiltAlong on Instagram. If your account is set to private, then we cannot see your posts and you will not be eligible to win (consider changing your privacy status until the quilt along is over). Winner's will be chosen by @Havels_Sewing and be posted on their account every other Thursday (same day as a new pattern releases). The giveaways is for US residents only.
- This is a completely free quilt along thanks to Havel's Sewing!
